MONTH!

Hispanic Heritage Month

Raul Alejandro Ocasio Ruiz, artistically known as Rauw Alejandro, is a Puerto Rican singer, songwriter, and dancer. Known best for his fusion of reggaeton, R&B, and Latin pop, Rauw Alejandro gained from one of his most famous songs "Todo de Ti" and his many collaborations with other significant artists. Growing up, he was surrounded by music, his father was a guitarist, his mother a vocalist, and and island full of vibrant musical culture. Before his music career, Rauw was very passionate about soccer and had aspirations of becoming a professional soccer player, he played for various local leagues, school teams, and continued playing when he attended the University of Puerto Rico. However, his soccer career was cut short due to an injury. Today, his smooth vocals, dynamic dance moves, and genre-blending style have made him one of the leading voices in the Latin community.
